In light of recent developments surrounding the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) warnings and to protect our staff members and the general public, South Salt Lake will be taking proactive measures to limit the spread of the virus until further notice. At this time, the Planning Commission meeting scheduled for Thursday, March 19th has been postponed.

Staff is working to determine a path for upcoming meetings. Details will be released in upcoming days.

Please understand that these protective measures are to limit the spread of COVID-19.

We appreciate your understanding.
