Back To School

Back to school is an exciting time for all of our education partners involved with Granite School District and Promise South Salt Lake. Our mission is to ensure that every single person in our community has an opportunity to attend and graduate from college. This takes years of practice and planning, and our team is here to support youth every step of the way. Our local public schools in Granite School District have tuned up their classrooms to meet the needs of every learner. Our Promise SSL staff is here to provide after-school, summer, and school break programs that provide continuous learning, free meals, social skills support and of course, fun. Our higher learning partners, including Salt Lake Community College, Westminster College, USU and U of U have many different free or low-cost ways to enter college, train for an industry or just expand horizons. And we are looking out for our youngest learners with free and low-cost preschool and enrichment for every single child in the city. If you are new to our city or local education system take a look at the Promise South Salt Lake Section of sslc.com to find out more.

School starts on Monday August 21st for Granite School District. Take a moment today to think about what every child needs to succeed. Take the time now to think about what your child needs to start on the first day and to research solutions for afterschool programs, college visits, or whatever challenge your student is ready to tackle. Planning today means success throughout the school year and an easy leap for student into college and careers in the future. Good luck and have a great first day of school!

Promise South Salt Lake Afterschool Delivers Model Programs

Promise South Salt Lake Afterschool programs deliver prevention programs with additional emphasis on quality. Trainers of high-quality specific programs that are currently on the National Registry of Effective and Promising and Programs (NREPP) have come to teach in South Salt Lake this spring and summer to give our Promise SSL program staff and partners the skills and information they need to deliver programs that state that they get results.

"In addition to afterschool programs serving more South Salt Lake youth this school year, Promise SSL staffs and partners have been trained and certified to implement model curriculums and evidence-based practices that have been proven to be effective. We are targeting specific outcomes for our youth, such as academic improvement, pro-social development, and delinquency prevention—all offered in active, engaging formats." says Kari Cutler, Promise South Salt Lake Director, “We want to make the most of every minute that we have our community’s children and youth in our programs.”
To apply for a no-cost afterschool program, English, Citizenship Class, or other program: Find the South Salt Lake Neighborhood Center program you or your child would like to attend. Call the Center Coordinator in the center listings below, or call Kelli Meranda, Promise South Salt Lake Deputy Director, at 801-828-8678 or email kmeranda@ssl.com to request program application forms. Note: Due to limited program slots at each site, completing an application does not guarantee acceptance into a program.

Youth City Council

Salt Lake Community College, believes higher education should be available to anyone who desires it. SLCC Promise helps eligible, full-time students pay for their education by covering the cost of tuition and fees when federal grants fall short. The Promise is intended to remove economic barriers and to provide a pathway for SLCC students to complete their degrees.

Community Connection Updates

Sandy Granite South Stake Youth Conference
On June 15, the Sandy Granite South Stake Youth came out with 175 youth and their leaders who helped out neighbors and neighborhoods by cleaning up yards, weeding and removing debris.

Riverton Stake Young Single Adult/Tree Planting Project
On June 17, Riverton Stake Single Adults came in by the hundreds to help the many residents of South Salt Lake in the cleaning of their properties. They also helped plant 16 trees throughout the city as well.

Millcreek Confluence
Seven Canyons Trust is leading a restoration effort at the confluence of Mill Creek and the Jordan River. On June 29 South Salt Lake brought a group of volunteers, organized by Laurie England and made up of refugee youth, to help improve the site. The property, owned by Salt Lake County, has great potential for habitat and wildlife-watching. Unfortunately, it has been overrun by weeds and recently had a small wildfire. The teens and adult volunteers helped clean up by reseeding the burnt area, weeding thistle, and watering new trees that have been planted to start rebuilding the plant diversity.

G.R.E.A.T Summer Camp
Each year, Community Connection partners with the Police Department in providing a service project for the youth participating in The G.R.E.A.T Summer Camp Program. These wonderful youth provided two awesome days of service for our community picking up garbage, sweeping the sports courts and sidewalks at Central Park.

Get Familiar with Your Company’s Emergency Preparedness Plan
If disaster strikes at work you need to be prepared. Being proactive in the preparation for emergencies is crucial. In addition to knowing multiple ways to exit your building, you should participate in workplace evacuation drills and consider keeping some emergency supplies at the office. Visit www.ready.gov and click on “Ready Business” for more information about preparedness at the workplace.

Back to School Safety Tips

5 Bus Safety Tips for Students:
1. Stand Back. Stay 10 giant steps away from the outside of the bus at all times. If you stand too close, the bus driver can’t see you.
2. Wait for OK to Cross. Wait until your bus driver gives you the OK sign before crossing the street.
3. Use the Handrail. Heavy backpacks and wet shoes are no match for the handrail. Hold on tight when getting on and off the bus to keep from tripping or slipping.
4. Sit the Right Way. Once you sit down, keep both feet flat on the floor and your back against the seat.
5. Be Still Until the Bus Completely Stops. It’s fun to be first, but it’s more important to be patient. Wait for the bus to completely stop before you try to get on board. And always stay in your seat while the bus is moving.

5 Bus Safety Tips for Motorists:
1. Maintain a Safe Distance. School buses stop frequently. Leave plenty of distance between your car and the bus in front of you so you can safely apply the brakes once lights start to flash.
2. Stop for Stop Arms. Red flashing lights and an extended stop arm mean a child is entering or exiting the bus. On two-lane roadways come to a complete stop (in either direction) until the stop arm and red lights are deactivated.
3. Never Pass From Behind. Passing a stopped school bus from behind as it loads and unloads children is illegal in all 50 states.
4. Give Riders Plenty of Room. Children are hard to see within the 10-foot area surrounding a school bus. When stopping, help keep children safe by giving them plenty of room to get on or off the bus.
5. Know Your State Laws. State laws regarding when to pass a stopped school bus on a roadway with four or more lanes can vary. To learn more, contact your local Department of Motor Vehicles.

Pedestrian Safety

1. Always cross at corners where there are traffic signals and designated crosswalks.
2. Make eye contact with drivers before crossing in front of them.
3. Always walk on sidewalks.
4. Always look left, right, and left again before crossing the street.
5. Be aware of cars that are turning or backing up.
6. Never run out into the street or cross between parked cars.

A young South Salt Lake resident, Tymn, (pictured on right) advocated for ducks to safely make their way across 500 East near Fitts Park. His letter to the governor made its way back to Mayor Cherie Wood (pictured on left) and the SSL Public works department, which installed the duck crossing signs he requested. Thank you Tymn for making our city safer for every living thing, particularly our feathered ones!

Rock Star: Chad Keller

Chad Keller has been a dedicated South Salt Lake Police Officer for 6 years. This year, Chad stepped up to fill the Crime Free Multi Housing Officer position, which sat vacant for several months after a retirement, waiting for sufficient manpower to fill it. This is a key position in the Police Department - He hit the ground running when he accepted the job and is making a difference.

Officer Keller has shown great initiative by revamping the Neighborhood Watch Program and adjusting the record keeping within his position. His personality and passion ensure the important task of community policing is always a priority in South Salt Lake.

He has done a remarkable job juggling his responsibilities and keeping a great attitude even when the tasks seem to get a little overwhelming. For these reasons Officer Chad Keller is the Police Department Rock Star!
