At-Large Council Representative

Natalie Pinkney was first elected in 2019, and is serving her first term as an At-Large representative on the South Salt Lake City Council. Originally hailing from Las Vegas, Natalie holds a BA in Psychology from Marquette University, and a M.Ed of Educational Leadership and Policy from the University of Utah. She moved to the city in 2018, and currently works at the University of Utah.

Beyond her work with the U and the Council, Natalie also sits on the South Salt Lake Arts Council and the Salt Lake County Behavioral Health Advisory Board, and serves as Associate Director for a nonprofit that is focused on removing financial barriers for college-bound students. Additionally, she is a member of the U of U's Prison Education Program and works with several other area nonprofits. In her free time, Natalie enjoys playing tennis, writing and spending quality time with her three cats
